The world's leading GSA company founded in Italy in 1988 has added four new operations, to its international portfolio.

H.T.M.S has currently 9 regional offices in: London, Milan, Madrid, Lisbon, Prague, Stockholm, Gothenburg, Moscow, Cairo and Vancouver, with two more to be opened in the second half of 2006 in Sao Paulo (H.T.M.S. South America) and Frankfurt (H.T.M.S. Central Europe).

The group is also looking for an international partner to complete its growth plan in Asia and Australia by the end 2006.

H.T.M.S. International - says Gianni Martino - COO of the group, has crossed the last frontier of the outsourcing of services by providing all its clients with a total coverage of their sales needs on both regional and international basis.

The organization is a natural extension of it's represented client's sales offices, able to deliver excellent and cost effective results in short time and total transparency.

Each H.T.M.S. regional operation has achieved outstanding results, managing operations and sales for leading travel and hospitality companies as well as destinations and airlines.

All the colleagues – says Gianni Martino – who manage our regional operations has at least 10 years of managerial experience in the tourism industry and a great record of achievements, however it is the list of prestigious clients that H.T.M.S. International serves today and has served in its life that shows the ability of the company and its management to deliver outstanding sales results.
